

Look to the rock from which you were born

הביטו אל-צור הציבתם

chicago jewish historical society

Beverly Siegel

“After the Romance, Let Them Eat Cake”

A screening of the CJHS’s award-winning documentary, “Romance of a People: The First 100 Years of Jewish History in Chicago,” plus a behind-the-scenes glimpse of how history gets told

Sunday, February 27, 2011

2:00 PM

Wilmette Public Library, 1242 Wilmette Avenue

Beverly Siegel, writer/director of “Romance,” talks about how a century of Chicago Jewish history got condensed into 30 minutes of video. Ms. Siegel will share fascinating insights into how stories become history, what goes in, what gets left out, and why. Following the program—delicious kosher pastries!

ADMISSION FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Parking available in the library lot

For further information, e-mail info@chicagojewishhistory.org or phone (312) 663-5634